

GERMAN REPLY TO UNCLE SAM NOT PLEASING

Critical Stage in Relations With Germany Again Looms Up Over Alleged Failure to Meet Requests Made—Note Expected to Reach Washington Tomorrow—Officials Greatly Disappointed Over Contents.

By Associated Press.

Berlin, July 9.—The German reply to the American note regarding the sinking of the Lusitania and submarine warfare, was delivered to James W. Gerard, the American ambassador in Berlin, late last night.

Washington, July 9.—Delivery of Germany's reply to the American note on submarine warfare to Ambassador Gerard in Berlin last night, should bring the official text to the State Department here probably tomorrow, and undoubtedly by Sunday. President Wilson is expected to return from the summer White House at Cornish, N. H., to lay the reply before the cabinet at a meeting Tuesday.

On the basis of the outline of the note the American government declined to engage in any supplementary negotiations because the German proposals were regarded as such which the United States could not accept without sacrificing many of its rights.

Meanwhile there is a renewal of the tension over what the next step will be if the text of the German reply bears out the unofficial outlines which indicated that it would be so unsatisfactory to the United States. The general undertone in official quarters was one of disappointment. What the president's course would be, no officials would predict; but it was evident that another critical stage in the relations between Germany and the United States was at hand. One course considered probable would be to reject the German proposals and notify the Berlin government, in effect, that the United States intended to insist on the principle of visit and search for all unarmored vessels, of any nationality, carrying Americans, and that a specific violation of those rights would determine the next step in the American policy. As for the Lusitania case, however, failure by Germany to admit liability for the loss of more than 100 American lives is a phase of the situation on which there were today few suggestions as to what the United States should do.

Some of the president's advisers have repeatedly counseled that the breach of international law was so flagrant that it remained only for the United States to have no diplomatic intercourse with the German government, unless the intent of the act was denied and reparation was promised.

There were indications today that the new German note would cause a return to the Lusitania case as a foremost issue.

Berlin, July 9.—The note is now being translated and it will go forward to Washington sometime today. The text of the note will meanwhile be withheld from the newspaper correspondents, and permission for the transmission of summaries is being withheld. This is done to give the official version the right of way. The note is of considerable length.

DAMAGED LINER GOES TO HALIFAX

By Associated Press.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, July 9.—The Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha, which caught fire Wednesday on her way from New York to London with 15,000 tons of war munitions on board, after an explosion which may have been caused by an infernal machine sent aboard by Frank Holt, J. P. Morgan's assailant, steamed slowly through mist and drizzling rain into Halifax harbor today.

Early wireless advices from her captain indicated that the flames had been mastered during the night; that the blaze had all but been extinguished, and that all danger apparently was past.

Great care was exercised here in the arrangements made to receive the ship, on account of the danger to shipping in the harbor from her cargo of explosives aboard so long as a vestige of fire remained in her cargo.

VILLA MEETS HIS WATERLOO

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 9.—General Villa has been defeated by Carranza troops ten miles south of Aguascalientes and is retreating north, according to consular advices. The message was brief and indicated that telegraphic communication very probably would be interrupted north of Aguascalientes within a few days.

GERMANS GIVE UP THE FIGHT

By Associated Press.

Pretoria, South Africa, July 9.—General Botha, commander of the forces of the Union of Africa, has accepted the surrender of all German military forces in German South Africa. Reports recently have stated such a surrender was expected.

British military experts have contended that General Botha has conducted a masterly campaign. The Germans surrendered unconditionally, following the issuance of General Botha's ultimatum, which expired at 5 o'clock Thursday evening.

With the exception of the necessary army of occupation, the citizen army will be brought home as quickly as possible.

NO REFERENDUM ON SCREEN LAW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, July 9.—No referendum will be called on the Gallagher coal screen law by the United Mine Workers, the attorney general's department was notified formally today by counsel for the miners. The reason assigned was the great expense necessary for such a campaign.

PROMINENT MEN UNDER ARREST

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, July 9.—Philip R. Thayer, president of the Northern & Southern Steamship Company, and three shipping brokers were arrested today on indictments returned by the Federal Grand Jury charging violation of American neutrality in connection with the transfer of supplies to German warships by the steamer Sacramento.

ANOTHER MEXICAN LEADER ARRESTED

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, July 9.—Jose Robles, a former Mexican general, was arrested by federal authorities today, charged with conspiracy to violate the United States neutrality laws. In default of $5,000 bond he was taken to jail.

THAW AGAIN UPON STAND

New York, July 9.—Harry K. Thaw, during his second day on the witness stand at the trial to determine whether he has recovered his sanity, retold the story of how he killed Stanford White, and denied that he had ever paid Susan A. Merrill large sums of money to keep secret the names of "certain persons." He said he shot White after he saw him move his hand toward his pocket.

Thaw spoke in a low tone of voice and appeared to be composed. Once or twice he answered his cross-examiner sharply. He referred to the alienists who testified for the state at habeas corpus proceedings as "bug doctors."

MORE INTRIGUE IN ENGLAND

London, July 9.—The official announcement made by David Lloyd George, the minister of munitions, on July 7, regarding Viscount Haldane, ex-Lord Chancellor and Secretary of War, and the question of the supply of war munitions, has started a political sensation. The Northcliffe Press declares there is an intrigue to get Lord Haldane back into the cabinet, and publishes an appeal urging its readers to protest against the readmission of Lord Haldane to the cabinet.

30 DEAD

Austrians in Retreat With Pursuing Russians Inflicting Heavy Losses—German Activities West of Warsaw Renewed and Gasses Are Used—French Win in Vosges—Big Powder Mill Lets Go in England—Germany Sending Heavy Reinforcements West.

By Associated Press.

London, July 9.—Vienna admits that the Austrians have been compelled to retreat from the Lublin region in Russian-Poland. The Russians say the Austrians are in full retreat and are being pursued. Military observers declare the Austrian reverse was the result of the tactical blunders by Archduke Francis Ferdinand, which enabled the Russians to deliver an attack costing the Austrians 15,000 men.

Sanguinary clashes have occurred along the western battle lines, from the river Aisne to the Vosges. In the latter region the French claim a notable success. They report having retaken the trenches captured by the Germans on June 22, and continued their advance until they had gained 700 yards along a 600-yard front. The German statement admits that hilltop trenches here were destroyed by French artillery fire, and had to be evacuated.

London, July 9.—German military activities are apparently in full swing again along the front to the west and northwest of Warsaw. Latest Petrograd statements indicate this.

Heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans in the Przasnysz district, the Russians report, but near Bolimow, almost directly west of Warsaw, an attack with gasses resulted in the storming of first line trenches. In some of these the Germans retained a foothold.

London, July 9.—Curtis's big powder mills at Hounslow, Middlesex, were virtually destroyed today by a series of explosions which occurred shortly after a hundred men had commenced work. No statement of the casualties is yet available.

It was stated at the powder mills that only one person had been killed, but that many had been injured. A preliminary explosion gave a warning which enabled most of the workers to flee the building.

London, July 9.—Reports continue to reach here by way of Holland that the Germans are sending heavy reinforcements to the western front. The only news of the operations in this zone, however, is contained in the Paris official statement, which claims several French successes, but concedes a German advance near the La Prete forest.

KITCHENER MAKES PLEA FOR MORE MEN

By Associated Press.

London, July 9.—Great crowds assembled in and around the Guild Hall and the route leading to it this afternoon to hear Lord Kitchener address a meeting to inaugurate a special recruiting campaign. The field marshal's ride to the hall unaccompanied by British enthusiasm, and the scene has had no precedent in London since the outbreak of the war.

"We require more men, and still more men," said Lord Kitchener, sounding the keynote of his address, "but the situation in this respect is immeasurably better than it was ten months ago. The military position today, however, is as serious as then."

TWO ARRESTS IN MURDER CASE

By Associated Press.

Bedford, Iowa, July 9.—Further developments in the case that has come to be known as "the mystery of the murdered cattleman and his son," or "the $90,000 buried treasure," came today with the arrest of James and John Bainwood, brothers, nearly 60 years of age.

The story of the murder of an unknown wealthy cattleman and his son, back in 1868, came to light yesterday with the arrest of Bates Huntsman, aged 70, member of a family prominent in this section, and Henry Scribner, a well-to-do cattleman.

HUERTA AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT.

Victoriano Huerta (on left), former president of Mexico, and Pascual Orozco (on right) are now under $15,000 bond on a charge of planning another revolt in Mexico, from El Paso, Tex. The plans were to cross the international bridge (shown here) into Juarez in Orozco's motor car when they were both arrested by United States officials.

AUTO STEALING IS QUITE AN INDUSTRY

It would appear that the stealing of automobiles has developed into quite an appreciable industry and that a considerable quantity of brain power is being utilized in making it a success.

Chief of Police Moore states that for many weeks past he has been receiving an average of 40 notifications per month, from police chiefs in various cities that automobiles have been stolen and asking him to be on the watch for them. Nine out of every ten of stolen cars are Fords and most of them are being stolen from Detroit.

Prospect for Peace

The latest rumor regarding the coming of peace in Europe, while it has nothing more substantial to sustain it than the theory of a thinker and a dreamer and while, perhaps, the wish may be father to the thought, is a reasonable one and entirely possible of developing into a correct prophecy.

The tremendous and irresistible offensive movement launched by the Germans against Russia which resulted in driving the Czar's troops from East Prussia and from Galicia, coupled with the apparently authentic report that the Kaiser is preparing for an equally powerful offensive movement against the French forces in Alsace, has caused the theorists to conclude that if the last mentioned offensive campaign is successful and the French are driven out of Alsace, that Germany's next move will be to announce a readiness to entertain proposals of peace.

The substantial idea being that when Germany can say to the world that her territory is entirely free from invaders, notwithstanding the immense force opposing her, the Teutons can then agree to peace with honor.

The world joins in the hope of the theorist who has advanced the latest talk of peace.

Providing Germany would consent, as a part of the peace terms, to surrender Belgium to the Belgians and pay for the damage done, there is no good reason why the allied forces should refuse to agree to peace on the terms suggested as likely to be offered.

There is no doubt that every nation at war is ready and anxious, on any reasonable terms, to end the conflict. There is no doubt either that there is much less of a desire among the warring nations to prolong the conflict because of hatred for opponents.

There is no doubt either that the anger of the belligerents is less intense than it was—lack of substantial successes on the battlefields has served to cool the anger of the warring powers and every nation involved is much more amenable to reason than it was twelve months ago.

Thus far the war has brought no decided success to either side and each passing day strengthens the hope and brightens the prospect that the contending forces will soon be ready to call the war a tie, stop fighting and go back to the ways of peace.

A Proposed Amendment

County officers came from sixty-five of the eighty-eight counties in Ohio Wednesday and held a meeting in Columbus.

The purpose of their journey to Columbus and their consultation with each other was to initiate a constitutional amendment fixing a four year term for all county officials.

The argument in favor of the proposal is that the adoption of such an amendment would reduce the expense of elections, relieve the people of the annoyance incident to so many elections and increase the efficiency of the public service.

The arguments advanced are all sound. The people do need to be relieved of the annoyance and the cost of so many elections and there is no doubt the public service would be benefitted by giving officials a longer term.

Officials would, unquestionably, have more time, relieved of frequent campaigns, to devote to their official duties.

The proposal would be received in much more favor if it did not include the retention of the present elected officials for a longer term than obtained when they were elected.

The endeavor of present officials to prolong their tenure of office creates the impression that selfishness is the motive behind the proposal rather than the public welfare and the existence of that impression will be the chief obstacle to be overcome.

The county officials who participated in the Columbus meeting would have been in much better position to urge the adoption of the proposed amendment by the voters if they had restrained their selfish desires.

They might have added materially to the prospects for the success of the proposal by including in the proposed amendment a clause making county officials, elected to a four year term, ineligible to succeed themselves.

With the proposed amendment freed of the objection that it would create four year terms for officers elected by the people to a two year term and strengthened by a one term provision, it is quite likely that the proposal would be endorsed by the voters.

THE HIGH ROAD.

The high road, oh, the high road—
With all the world a-fare.
My lady's carriage glitters
And all the lackeys stare.
She passes by with changeless eye,
Why should she look or care?

The high road, oh, the high road.
It is a sight to see.
The lords of this brief present,
Each in his own degree
Proud of the din he journeys in,
Roll on by grange and lea.

The high road, oh, the high road.
It is your way and mine.
I watch the hard-set faces:
You wonder where they dine.
The engines beat beneath their feet,
Their eyes are warmed with wine.

The high road, oh, the high road.
May I have strength to go
With steps of tranquil pleasure,
Unhurried, loitering, slow,
Until before the last inn door
The sunset bugles blow.

The Dog Team.

Now the modus operandi of a dog team is as follows: The leader and wheel dog are the whole works on the basis of 75 to 255. The leader starts 'em, he stops 'em, he picks the trail, he turns 'em. When he walks, the rest do; when he gallops, they gallop. All the wheel dog does is to guide the nose of the sled, materially assisted by the driver. The rest of the team merely pull and yelp.

From which follows that a good leader is a very desirable thing to have and a poor leader is worse than useless. The driver, at the handlebars, is often thirty feet from the leader, the dogs being driven tandem and controlled by word of mouth and a whip.—Outing.

Garlic and Milk.

The odor and flavor of garlic is due, like the odor of rotten eggs, to sulphur compounds. Garlic is a member of the onion family, grows in pastures, cultivated fields and even in the woods.

Garlic is a bad pest on any farm, but is exceptionally so on a dairy farm because of the strong flavor it gives to the milk. A temporary expedient is to keep the cows off the infested pasture at least four hours before milking. This will greatly reduce the bad flavor. Then if the milk stands at least four hours the flavor may disappear altogether.—Farm and Fireside.

GERMAN NOTE WILL NOT BE SATISFACTORY

Washington, July 9.—Based on information transmitted through Ambassador Gerard and press dispatches from Berlin, the conclusion has been reached here that the note which Germany is about to send to the United States contains little or nothing that will satisfy the views of this government regarding the submarine issue.

Since the administration has decided it can not discuss informally with the German government certain proposals which seem to represent the limit of Germany's concessions, the feeling is general in Washington that the situation will not be materially improved by the German reply about to be given to Mr. Gerard. If the present indications are accurately interpreted, Germany is offering no real concession, but is, in fact, proposing that the United States be the one to yield.

The prospect, as now viewed by Washington officials, is that the United States will be compelled for the second time to inform Germany that she has not met this government on the principles involved, and demand for the third time reparation for past offenses and assurances for the future freedom of American life and property from the menace of German submarine operations.

Break Unlikely.

This far from satisfactory outlook, however, is not regarded as foreshadowing a break between the two governments. Officials see no reason why a rupture should follow merely because Germany's proposals now seem certain to be rejected. Provided there is no further wanton attack on American life or the American flag it is believed the discussion of the issue may continue indefinitely. That it will remain a disputed question until the end of the war is regarded as within the range of possibility, provided always there is no repetition of the Lusitania disaster.

Secretary of State Lansing has declined to disclose what instructions, if any, the president has ordered sent to Ambassador Gerard regarding the response the latter shall make to the German foreign office. It may be said, however, that Mr. Gerard will not be authorized to discuss at the foreign office the German propositions in advance of their being received in the form of a note from Germany.

According to forecasts from Ambassador Gerard and from unofficial sources in Berlin, Germany offers to refrain from torpedoing only such ships leaving American ports as the United States certifies to be unarmed, without any contraband aboard, and guarantees that they will stop for examination when signaled by submarines.

Though it is admitted that opinion

can not finally be passed on this proposal until it is seen exactly in the form in which Germany submits it, the general opinion here is that it essentially involves an abridgement or surrender of the American right maintained by President Wilson, that citizens of this government may travel anywhere they please on unarmed merchantmen. On this ground alone it is declared it is not likely that the government could be in any way a party to such an arrangement. Furthermore, the plan is regarded as involving unneutral action by this government.

Kindness has converted more sinners than zeal, eloquence or learning.—F. W. Faber.

Do You Want to Stay Poor

Get out of your head the idea that Poverty is something you cannot help. Just so long as you stick to that theory just so long poverty is going to stick to you. People in most cases are poor because they are too indolent—too careless—too thoughtless. Sit down and figure what you are spending, and what you can do without. Not the things that cost dollars but the articles that cost pennies. How many pennies do you waste a week? Multiply that by 52—multiply that in turn by 50. You will then get some idea of why people stay poor all their lives. Fifty years of waste will turn even a millionaire into a pauper—while 50 years of economy will make a poor man rich.

—For the pennies that are wasted are responsible for most of the misery and practically all the poverty in the world.

CLAMOR FOR WORKMEN TO REPAIR TORNADO DAMAGE

Great Demand for Carpenters, Tinnerns and Other Workmen—Everyone Busy in Wake of Wednesday Night Storm—Loss Not Covered By Insurance Is Heavy—Repairing of Telephone Wires Progresses Rapidly—Injured Are Recovering

The path of the tornado of Wednesday night is a scene of remarkable activity, not only in this city where scores of workmen have been engaged in cleaning up the debris and repairing damage done, but in the rural districts, which suffered most, where every available man is being pressed into service in gathering up the scattered wheat, rebuilding fences, repairing damage to residences, barns and other buildings.

Carpenters and tinnerns are at a premium throughout the stricken district, owing to the great demand for immediate repairs, re-roofing, and rebuilding work necessary.

It has been impossible to give in detail the enormous damage inflicted by the storm, owing to lack of telephone facilities, and it will be

several days before all lines are restored to their former condition.

Extra workmen have been employed by both the Bell and Ohio State phone companies in the resetting of poles and stringing wires. Mile after mile of telephone wire was rendered useless when trees or branches crashed down upon the slender strands and carried them to the earth, or poles gave way before the blast and broke the lines.

Only a portion of the lights were turned on in the city Thursday night, but every effort is being made by the company to have the city well lighted tonight.

Thousands of fruit trees in the path of the storm were destroyed, and that loss alone will exceed $10,000, it is claimed.

The dozens of farmers who lost their barns, or other buildings, or suffered serious damage, are taking steps to rebuild and make repairs just as quickly as possible, but it will be several months before all buildings are replaced, and at a cost of tens of thousands of dollars.

The storm has caused a general rush for tornado insurance, many of the persons losing heaviest not having a dollar of tornado insurance.

Mrs. Mary Barker, who suffered a sprained ankle and bruises when the house in which she lived was destroyed, is recovering.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Frederick, who was badly injured when hurled from bed in a second story room to the ground, is recovering rapidly. Other victims of the storm, who suffered cuts and bruises only, are recovering.

Considering the number of hairbreadth escapes, it is surprising that the death list in this city and county did not number a half score or more.

ECHOES OF STORM.

Two barns were destroyed, scales house torn down on the Wm. Worthington farm during the storm Wednesday night. The Worthington home stead also was damaged.

Chas. Johnson's new home, under course of construction on Gregg street, was badly damaged.

A beautiful grove of fine old trees on the Worthington estate, and a similar grove on the Calvert farm in southwestern Fayette, were almost ruined, innumerable trees being torn up by roots or broken off, and great branches twisted from the trunks of other trees.

A barn on the John Fisher farm in the above neighborhood, was blown down.

Two or three barns on the Millikan estate were destroyed. A silo and sheds met a like fate.

J. C. Greiner lost a barn, scales and shed on his farm five miles east of this city. His damage exceeds $1,000.

The number of windpumps torn down is variously estimated at 25 to 50.

JESSE DENNER MAY FACE COURT WITHIN FEW DAYS

Following the close of the trial of John Denner, convicted of murder in the first degree and who admitted upon the witness stand that he killed Hoggy Bainter, the general public is displaying a great deal of interest in what punishment may be meted out to Jesse Denner, 18-year old brother of John Denner, and an accomplice in the crime, who is still confined in the county jail awaiting action of the court.

In an "admission" made by Jesse Denner in the presence of a number of court house attaches, March 22, he told how the crime had been committed by his brother, but upon the witness stand he made radically different statements calculated to show that John Denner killed Bainter in self defense.

The chief part Jesse Denner is alleged to have played in connection with the crime was aiding in keeping the crime concealed, and the law provides punishment for such an offense.

It is not known when Jesse Denner will be called into court, but this may be done within the next few days.

MAN WHO REALLY HATES HAIGHT

Pearl Villard, Ross countian, is looking for a man who appeared and hired a horse to drive to this city, and who has not yet returned. The man gave the name of Isaac Haight.

Haight is a junk dealer, and went into partnership with Villard, stating he would drive to this city, gathering up junk on the way, dispose of the junk here and then drive back, picking up another load. That was two weeks ago and the fellow has not returned.

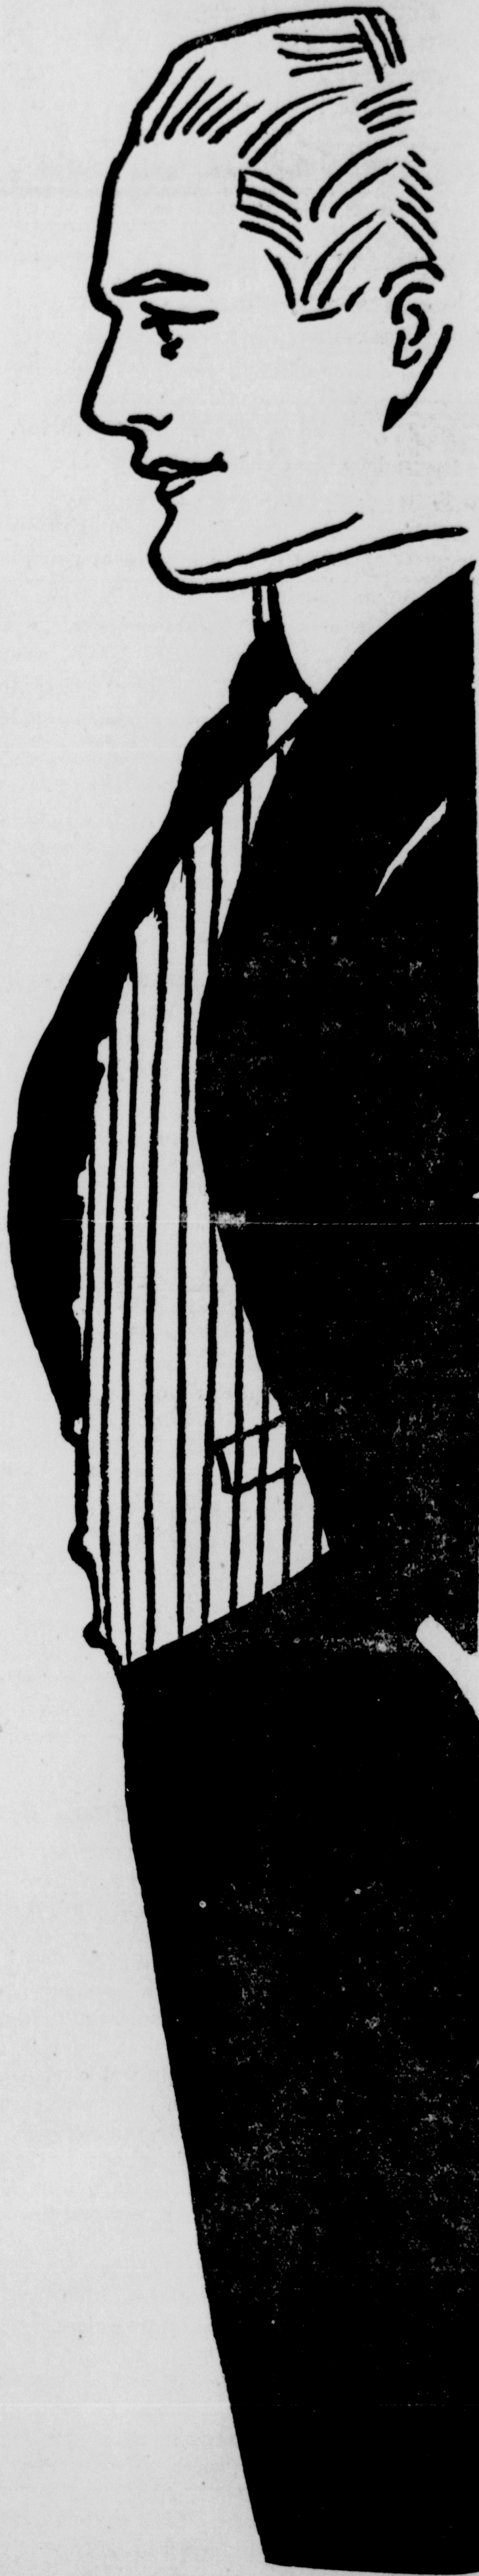

Haight is a man of 70 years of age, short gray beard and mustache. He is slightly crippled in the right leg. The horse is a dark bay, defective hind legs. The wagon is a covered one, originally painted black, with home made shafts. Any information should be telephoned to the police.

In Social Circles

A nuptial event of extended interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. King, of Good Hope, Wednesday evening, when their daughter Miss Lura E. King was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest R. Thomas, a prominent young farmer of Alexandria.

It was a wedding confined to the families and close friends and marked by informality, but very lovely in all its appointments. The large room was elaborately decorated throughout in asparagus fern, smilax and wild roses, and the bridal dower of asparagus and roses formed an effective background for a beautiful bridal tableau.

Leading the bridal party were two nephews of the bride, Charles Emmitt and Horace King Wilson, white, strewing the pathway out for the bride and groom with flowers.

A little niece of the bridegroom wore the ring on a white satin cushion. The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Grace King, a charming maid in empire gown of white tulle, the high waist outlined with pink rose buds, and Mrs. Ann Wilson, a handsome matron in honor, in her own wedding gown of white satin. Both carried pink bouquets.

In her bridal robes the bride was pictured, enveloped in long tulle, caught to her dark braids with orange blossoms, and carrying a flower bouquet of bride's roses and tied with tulle. Her gown was white crepe de chine and lace, with shored skirt, high neck and long sleeves.

Rev. Pfaltzgraf performed the ceremony.

A feature of the wedding was the beautiful music. Mrs. Will King, of Columbus, Md., sang three songs before the ceremony and Mrs. Lura York sang after the nuptial ceremony. Miss Bernice Boggs was pianist.

Mrs. King played the wedding march and soft strains during the ceremony.

Thirty-five wedding guests were seated with an elaborate four-course

RUINS ARE SEARCHED FOR BODIES

Cincinnati, July 9.—With twenty-five identified dead, more not identified, seven missing and property damage that will exceed $1,000,000, Cincinnati is making a valiant effort to recover from probably the worst wind and rainstorm of its history. One hundred persons are injured.

Wednesday night at 9:30 the storm broke; one-half hour later the city and its suburbs lay stricken, in almost total darkness, its telephone system paralyzed, its streetcar service completely suspended and its citizens groping to ascertain the toll the storm had exacted. The wind blew seventy miles an hour.
Two steamboats had gone down in the Ohio river, one having hit a bridge pier, while the other was overturned by the terrific force of the gale; probably 100 houses were leveled to the ground, a half dozen lofty church spires were toppled, and when the full extent of the damage was ascertained it was found that few houses in the city had escaped some damage.

The streets of the downtown district were strewn with electric signs and plateless windows, while in the residence section and in the suburbs even wagon and automobile traffic was made impossible by hundreds upon hundreds of trees uprooted and thrown across the thoroughfares. Probably fifty clubhouses along the Ohio river were swept into the stream and floated away.
Streetcar service is practically normal, and the telephone service is rapidly recovering from the blow, while the city has done miraculous work in cleaning up the debris. But the search for bodies in the collapsed houses continues, and the river is being dragged and its surface searched for the bodies of those who are believed to have gone down on the sunken steamers.

Tricks of the Storm.
The storm played many odd and peculiar tricks. Eleven persons, all related, are believed to have been killed.
The family of Louis Cohen and that of Meyer Tennenbaum, closely related, but living blocks away from each other, were stricken, three of the Cohen family and four of the Tennen-baum family being among the known dead, while four other members, one Tennenbaum and three Cohens, are believed to be still buried in the ruins of their homes.

At Terrace Park, a suburb, a special train carrying race horses from Latonia to the eastern race tracks was wrecked. Nineteen thoroughbred horses were killed.
The work of searching for the dead goes on, while the captain and twelve surviving members of the crew of the tugboat Convoy, which hit a bridge pier and went down, have given up all hope that the remaining six members of the crew are alive.

The damage to Newport, Covington,
Bellevue, Dayton, Fort Thomas, Fort Mitchell, Latonia and Ludlow, on the Kentucky side, it is believed, will almost equal the amount of damage wrought in this city.

Reports from the smaller cities of southern Ohio indicate that while the storm was severe in these localities,
yet little property damage was done,
although crops suffered heavily. Dayton suffered a loss of $35,000.

Among the dead in Cincinnati are James Allen, Ohio Humane society officer; Redmond Fagin and Grace and Lee Spicer. The greatest number of fatalities occurred in the vicinity of Sixth and Mound streets, where five buildings collapsed.

OHIO BRIEFS
Board of Control at Wooster.
Columbus, July 9.—Governor Willis appointed the new board of control for the agricultural experiment station at Wooster, as follows: B. E.

tin L. Ruetenik, Republican, three years; Charles F. Flumerfel, Democrat, Old Fort, four years, and George E. Scott, Republican, Mt. Pleasant, five years.

Willis Opposes Salary Grab.
Columbus, July 9.—Governor Willis
told callers he thoroughly disapproved attempts by legislators to get their $1,000 pay for 1918 at this time. A movement for that purpose is said to have been started by several members of the assembly. The governor urged the lawmakers to wait until next year before even presenting requests for their money.

Road Work For Miners.
Columbus, July 9.—Governor Willis
and State Highway Commissioner

dam roads in the Hocking valley today. The case may be left to the jury by tomorrow noon.

School Teacher Killed.
Cleveland, July 9.—Miss Clara Sitzcnstock, a public school teacher, was run down and killed by an automobile.
Frank Conlin, twenty-five, driver of the car, is being held on a charge of manslaughter. Miss Sitzcnstock was struck as she stepped from a streetcar.

Motorboats Swamped.
Newark, O., July 9.—A score of swamped motorboats, wrecked docks and uprooted trees cover the damage in the heavy storm which broke over Buckeye lake. The loss probably will reach $1,000. No one was injured.

BAR ASSOCIATION HAS AN ELECTION
Cedar Point, O., July 9.—C. R. Miller of Cleveland was elected president at the closing session of the Ohio State Bar association. Other officers chosen are: Charles M. Buss, Cleveland, secretary; Clement R. Gilmore, Dayton, treasurer; George R. Young,
Dayton; M. J. Hartley, Xenia, and Ed-

delegates to the American Bar association.

periences are reported by her commander.

HUGE CAKE
FOR JOHN D.
Tarrytown, N. Y., July 9.—John D.
Rockefeller celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday quietly at his home in Pocantico Hills, the only interesting incident being a visit from Anton von Mings, who came from Chicago with a birthday cake for the oil king. Von Mings was very much disappointed after his long journey because he could not see Mr. Rockefeller and deliver the cake personally. Mr. Rockefeller has been greatly disturbed since the shooting of J. P. Morgan, and because of the attempt on the Wall street financier's life he canceled his trip to Cleveland and closed his grounds tight.
Von Mings, who is about sixty years old, carried his cake in a box about three feet high. He was much dejected and returned to the depot and later left for Chicago. Von Mings, who said he was a baker as well as a blacksmith, made the cake. He said he walked here from Chicago two years ago to see Mr. Rockefeller and had been sent to the insane asylum at Poughkeepsie, where he remained nine months.

Members of the site committee of the joint county commission which has in hand the preparation of plans for the erection of a district anti-tuberculosis hospital, met in Columbus Thursday and decided to visit the district tubercular hospitals at Columbus, Lima and Springfield, as the first step in gaining information leading to the proper selection of a site.

County commissioner Harry Brown of this county is chairman of this committee. The appointment of the site committee followed the organization of the joint county commission, composed of members of boards of county commissioners, which occurred in Chillicothe a week ago. Mr. Edwin Weaver, of Fayette county, is president of this commission.

The counties included in the commission at the time of its formation were Ross, Highland, Scioto, Pike, and Fayette. Thursday Jackson was admitted to the body and application for admittance has been received from Hocking county.

GERMAN REPLY TO UNCLE SAM NOT PLEASING

Critical Stage in Relations With Germany Again Looms Up Over Alleged Failure to Meet Requests Made—Note Expected to Reach Washington Tomorrow—Officials Greatly Disappointed Over Contents.

By Associated Press.

Berlin, July 9.—The German reply to the American note regarding the sinking of the Lusitania and submarine warfare, was delivered to James W. Gerard, the American ambassador in Berlin, late last night.

Washington, July 9.—Delivery of Germany's reply to the American note on submarine warfare to Ambassador Gerard in Berlin last night, should bring the official text to the State Department here probably tomorrow, and undoubtedly by Sunday. President Wilson is expected to return from the summer White House at Cornish, N. H., to lay the reply before the cabinet at a meeting Tuesday.

On the basis of the outline of the note the American government declined to engage in any supplementary negotiations because the German proposals were regarded as such which the United States could not accept without sacrificing many of its rights.

Meanwhile there is a renewal of the tension over what the next step will be if the text of the German reply bears out the unofficial outlines which indicated that it would be so unsatisfactory to the United States.

The general undertone in official quarters was one of disappointment. What the president's course would be, no officials would predict; but it was evident that another critical stage in the relations between Germany and the United States was at hand. One course considered probable would be to reject the German proposals and notify the Berlin government, in effect, that the United States intended to insist on the principle of visit and search for all unarmed vessels, of any nationality, carrying Americans, and that a specific violation of those rights would determine the next step in the American policy. As for the Lusitania case, however, failure by Germany to admit liability for the loss of more than 100 American lives is a phase of the situation on which there were today few suggestions as to what the United States should do.

Some of the president's advisers have repeatedly counseled that the breach of international law was so flagrant that it remained only for the United States to have no diplomatic intercourse with the German government, unless the intent of the act was denied and reparation was promised.

There were indications today that the new German note would cause a return to the Lusitania case as a foremost issue.

Berlin, July 9.—The note is now being translated and it will go forward to Washington sometime today. The text of the note will meanwhile be withheld from the newspaper correspondents, and permission for the transmission of summaries is being withheld. This is done to give the official version the right of way. The note is of considerable length.

DAMAGED LINER GOES TO HALIFAX

By Associated Press.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, July 9.—The Atlantic transport liner Minnehaha, which caught fire Wednesday on her way from New York to London with 15,000 tons of war munitions on board, after an explosion which may have been caused by an infernal machine sent aboard by Frank Holt, J. P. Morgan's assailant, steamed slowly through mist and drizzling rain into Halifax harbor today.

Early wireless advices from her captain indicated that the flames had been mastered during the night; that the blaze had all but been extinguished, and that all danger apparently was past.

Great care was exercised here in the arrangements made to receive the ship, on account of the danger to shipping in the harbor from her cargo of explosives aboard so long as a vestige of fire remained in her cargo.

VILLA MEETS HIS WATERLOO

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 9.—General Villa has been defeated by Carranza troops ten miles south of Aguascalientes and is retreating north, according to consular advices. The message was brief and indicated that telegraphic communication very probably would be interrupted north of Aguascalientes within a few days.

GERMANS GIVE UP THE FIGHT

By Associated Press.

Pretoria, South Africa, July 9.—General Botha, commander of the forces of the Union of Africa, has accepted the surrender of all German military forces in German South Africa. Reports recently have stated such a surrender was expected.

British military experts have contended that General Botha has conducted a masterly campaign. The Germans surrendered unconditionally, following the issuance of General Botha's ultimatum, which expired at 5 o'clock Thursday evening.

With the exception of the necessary army of occupation, the citizen army will be brought home as quickly as possible.

NO REFERENDUM ON SCREEN LAW

By Associated Press.

Columbus, July 9.—No referendum will be called on the Gallagher coal screen law by the United Mine Workers, the attorney general's department was notified formally today by counsel for the miners. The reason assigned was the great expense necessary for such a campaign.

PROMINENT MEN UNDER ARREST

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, July 9.—Philip R. Thayer, president of the Northern & Southern Steamship Company, and three shipping brokers were arrested today on indictments returned by the Federal Grand Jury charging violation of American neutrality in connection with the transfer of supplies to German warships by the steamer Sacramento.

ANOTHER MEXICAN LEADER ARRESTED

By Associated Press.

El Paso, Texas, July 9.—Jose Robles, a former Mexican general, was arrested by federal authorities today, charged with conspiracy to violate the United States neutrality laws. In default of $5,000 bond he was taken to jail.

THAW AGAIN UPON STAND

New York, July 9.—Harry K. Thaw, during his second day on the witness stand at the trial to determine whether he has recovered his sanity, retold the story of how he killed Stanford White, and denied that he had ever paid Susan A. Merrill large sums of money to keep secret the names of "certain persons." He said he shot White after he saw him move his hand toward his pocket.

Thaw spoke in a low tone of voice and appeared to be composed. Once or twice he answered his cross-examiner sharply. He referred to the alienists who testified for the state at habeas corpus proceedings as "bug doctors."

MORE INTRIGUE IN ENGLAND

London, July 9.—The official announcement made by David Lloyd George, the minister of munitions, on July 7, regarding Viscount Haldane, ex-Lord Chancellor and Secretary of War, and the question of the supply of war munitions, has started a political sensation. The Northcliffe Press declares there is an intrigue to get Lord Haldane back into the cabinet, and publishes an appeal urging its readers to protest against the readmission of Lord Haldane to the cabinet.

30 DEAD

Cincinnati, July 9.—While 30 bodies of victims of Wednesday night's storm had been recovered, it was still impossible to give a definite estimate of the total loss of life. A score or more of persons were reported to be missing.

HUERTA AGAIN IN THE LIMELIGHT.

Victoriano Huerta (on left), former president of Mexico, and Pascual Orozco (on right) are now under $15,000 bond on a charge of planning another revolt in Mexico, from El Paso, Tex. The plans were to cross the international bridge (shown here) into Juarez in Orozco's motor car when they were both arrested by United States officials.

ARCHDUKE'S BLUNDER COSTS 15,000 MEN

Austrians in Retreat With Pursuing Russians Inflicting Heavy Losses—German Activities West of Warsaw Renewed and Gasses Are Used—French Win in Vosges—Big Powder Mill Lets Go in England—Germany Sending Heavy Reinforcements West.

By Associated Press.

London, July 9.—Vienna admits that the Austrians have been compelled to retreat from the Lublin region in Russian-Poland. The Russians say the Austrians are in full retreat and are being pursued. Military observers declare the Austrian reverse was the result of the tactical blunders by Archduke Francis Ferdinand, which enabled the Russians to deliver an attack costing the Austrians 15,000 men.

Sanguinary clashes have occurred along the western battle lines, from the river Aisne to the Vosges. In the latter region the French claim a notable success. They report having retaken the trenches captured by the Germans on June 22, and continued their advance until they had gained 700 yards along a 600-yard front. The German statement admits that hilltop trenches here were destroyed by French artillery fire, and had to be evacuated.

London, July 9.—German military activities are apparently in full swing again along the front to the west and northwest of Warsaw. Latest Petrograd statements indicate this.

Heavy losses were inflicted on the Germans in the Przasnysz district, the Russians report, but near Bolimow, almost directly west of Warsaw, an attack with gasses resulted in the storming of first line trenches. In some of these the Germans retained a foothold.

London, July 9.—Curtis' big powder mills at Hounslow, Middlesex, were virtually destroyed today by a series of explosions which occurred shortly after a hundred men had commenced work. No statement of the casualties is yet available.

It was stated at the powder mills that only one person had been killed, but that many had been injured. A preliminary explosion gave a warning which enabled most of the workers to flee the building.

London, July 9.—Reports continue to reach here by way of Holland that the Germans are sending heavy reinforcements to the western front. The only news of the operations in this zone, however, is contained in the Paris official statement, which claims several French successes, but concedes a German advance near the La Prete forest.

KITCHENER MAKES PLEA FOR MORE MEN

By Associated Press.

London, July 9.—Great crowds assembled in and around the Guild Hall and the route leading to it this afternoon to hear Lord Kitchener address a meeting to inaugurate a special recruiting campaign. The field marshal's ride to the hall unaccompanied British enthusiasm, and the scene has had no precedent in London since the outbreak of the war.

"We require more men, and still more men," said Lord Kitchener, sounding the keynote of his address, "but the situation in this respect is immeasurably better than it was ten months ago. The military position today, however, is as serious as then."

TWO ARRESTS IN MURDER CASE

By Associated Press.

Bedford, Iowa, July 9.—Further developments in the case that has come to be known as "the mystery of the murdered cattleman and his son," or "the $90,000 buried treasure," came today with the arrest of James and John Bainwood, brothers, nearly 60 years of age.

The story of the murder of an unknown wealthy cattleman and his son, back in 1868, came to light yesterday with the arrest of Bates Huntsman, aged 70, member of a family prominent in this section, and Henry Scribner, a well-to-do cattleman.

TO SUPPLY PLANT FROM WASHINGTON

Chillicothe billboards are to be rebuilt with a view to being more pleasing to the eye, and the plant at Chillicothe will be served from this city, motor trucks being used to carry posters and equipment.

Regarding the changes, and speaking of Geo. Chennell, of Columbus, who owns the local boards and supply station, the Chillicothe News says:

"The Columbus magnate who started as a bill poster himself and who if necessary, can get out today and post as much paper as any one, has become wealthy in the business. He now owns 21 bill posting plants in Ohio, and when the local one is built up, he will have another. All these plants are managed from the Columbus offices, and very few have a local agent.

"Mr. Chennell says the local plant will be cared for from Washington C. H., and all the posting will be done from motor trucks. Once each week the city will be visited, and the posting done on that date. Mr. Chennell expects to put a gang of twenty men in here next week to build about 2000 feet of bill boards. Many of the old contracts have been renewed and others are to be made.

"It is interesting to note that a Chillicothe boy, Wilbur (Red) Ortman, is the right-hand bower for Mr. Chennell. He will look after the rebuilding of the local plant.

LATE PEACHES

Fort Clinton, O., July 9.—There is no doubt but what the peach crop in northern Ohio will give all local people an opportunity of enjoying home grown fruit this year. Ottawa county alone is promising from 800,000 to 1,000,000 bushels of the island fruit. This is to be the biggest harvest for this section, in the history of the fruit industry.

While the shippers are predicting low prices, the growers are going to make money on account of the enormous crop. That Ohio peaches are popular on the market is shown by the large number of buyers, who have already started negotiations, from distant markets.

The lateness of the Ohio fruit has been one element in favor of the domestic canning, for it is after the vacations and the hot summer days that the Elbertas and Lemon Frees arrive on the market.

Tomorrow is the last discount day on gas and electric light bills.

DEEP INTEREST MANIFESTED IN COMING MEETING

Reports from a number of Men's Bible classes in several towns and cities within 30 miles of Greenfield, show that the movement recently launched for a union meeting of all men's Bible classes in an all day meeting at Greenfield, is meeting with approval.

The cities and towns included are, Washington, Greenfield, Chillicothe, Wilmington, Jeffersonville, Hillsboro, Leesburg, Bainbridge and all intermediate towns and villages.

The meeting, which will be held some Sunday in August, will be open to Bible classes of all denominations, and noted speakers will be obtained, as well as splendid music, and efforts will be made to make the day not only a memorable one but one which will have far-reaching results.

It will be the first meeting of its kind ever held in the state, and a vast number of men are expected to respond to the invitations extended, and each class go, as far as possible, in a body.

Details of the meeting will be announced in the near future, but it is definitely settled that the meeting will be held on the Chautauqua grounds at Greenfield, owing to its central location.

30TH ANNIVERSARY

The Ohio Woman Suffrage Association will celebrate its 30th anniversary at Springfield, Ohio, July 17th. The first suffrage convention was held in Ohio in 1850, regular organization was perfected later which lapsed during the war. The organization of the present association was perfected in 1885 by Mrs. Frances M. Casement of Painesville, now Honorary President.

In connection with the meeting, the Clark county organization will hold a regular convention with delegates from all townships. Mrs. Edward Buchwalter, of Springfield, chairman of Clark county organization committee, will have local arrangements in charge.

The state officers will be present. There will be an all day meeting at Snyder Park. Among the speakers will be Harriet Taylor Upton, president of the association; Mrs. Myron B. Vorce, Cleveland; Dora Sandee Bachman, Columbus; Zella Hart Deming, Warren; Florence E. Allen, Cleveland; Mary Graham Rice, Norwalk; Prof. Harriette Dilla, Lake Erie College; Alice Standish, Oberlin College.

Although Ohio suffragists have been organizing by congressional districts, having 16 of the 22 organized with efficient leaders no delegation will visit congressman Fess, since he is an avowed suffragist.

MANY FUGITIVES NOT YET CAPTURED

Only five of the thirteen workhouse prisoners who escaped from the Xenia works one night this week, have been apprehended, and the five do not include either Albert or Orville Brown, of this city, who were two of the thirteen.

The men were arrested at Waynesville, and six others of the escaped convicts were sighted near that city.

Two of the men broke from jail at Corwin, and made their escape a second time.

WILLIAMSON'S FAMOUS SUBMARINE PICTURES!

Positively the first and only pictures taken under the sea. See the fight between Man and Shark.

These Marvels of Deep-Sea Photography

These First and Only Pictures Ever Made At The Bottom of The Ocean

Begin with scenes showing the native divers plunging from their boats to follow to the bottom of the sea the coins thrown them by tourists on an ocean liner. The audience is taken under the ocean in the steel submarine chamber, where through a flawless glass panel can be seen the divers scrambling for pennies on the very bed of the ocean.

Then begins a marvelous submarine journey of thirty leagues along the floor of the ocean that is like the realization of an engrossing fairy tale. A wonderful and ever-changing panorama is revealed of a world heretofore unknown to man. During this exciting journey you visit the world famous marine gardens of the Bahamas. Strange fish, never seen before, swim past the glass window of the submarine chamber, where the camera man turns the crank and photographs a panorama of wonders and beauties of the deep. Among the thousands of feet of film obtained are pictures showing a battle to the death between a daring swimmer, armed only with a knife, and a huge blue shark. This remarkable motion picture that has amazed scientists, interested students of natural history and delighted the regular patrons of the "Movies," has proved to be the theatrical sensation of the season in New York, where 10,000 school teachers were invited to see it by the management, and 100,000 pupils of the public schools crowded the theatre at the Saturday morning matinees that were given each week to accommodate the children.

AUTO STEALING IS QUITE AN INDUSTRY

It would appear that the stealing of automobiles has developed into quite an appreciable industry and that a considerable quantity of brain power is being utilized in making it a success.

Chief of Police Moore states that for many weeks past he has been receiving an average of 40 notifications per month, from police chiefs in various cities that automobiles have been stolen and asking him to be on the watch for them. Nine out of every ten of stolen cars are Fords and most of them are being stolen from Detroit.

JUST ONE FREAK OF THE STORM

One of the most unusual freaks of the recent big windstorm occurred at Bloomingburg, where a small hog house belonging to Sherman Haines was turned over and the V-shaped top torn off and hurled upon the back of a cow in the pasture nearby. The cow, with the roof over her back, wandered about until Thursday morning when her plight was discovered and the roof removed.

Prospect for Peace

The latest rumor regarding the coming of peace in Europe, while it has nothing more substantial to sustain it than the theory of a thinker and a dreamer and while, perhaps, the wish may be father to the thought, is a reasonable one and entirely possible of developing into a correct prophecy.

The tremendous and irresistible offensive movement launched by the Germans against Russia which resulted in driving the Czar's troops from East Prussia and from Galicia, coupled with the apparently authentic report that the Kaiser is preparing for an equally powerful offensive movement against the French forces in Alsace, has caused the theorists to conclude that if the last mentioned offensive campaign is successful and the French are driven out of Alsace, that Germany's next move will be to announce a readiness to entertain proposals of peace.

The substantial idea being that when Germany can say to the world that her territory is entirely free from invaders, notwithstanding the immense force opposing her, the Teutons can then agree to peace with honor.

The world joins in the hope of the theorist who has advanced the latest talk of peace.

Providing Germany would consent, as a part of the peace terms, to surrender Belgium to the Belgians and pay for the damage done, there is no good reason why the allied forces should refuse to agree to peace on the terms suggested as likely to be offered.

There is no doubt that every nation at war is ready and anxious, on any reasonable terms, to end the conflict. There is no doubt either that there is much less of a desire among the warring nations to prolong the conflict because of hatred for opponents.

There is no doubt either that the anger of the belligerents is less intense than it was—lack of substantial successes on the battlefields has served to cool the anger of the warring powers and every nation involved is much more amenable to reason than it was twelve months ago.

Thus far the war has brought no decided success to either side and each passing day strengthens the hope and brightens the prospect that the contending forces will soon be ready to call the war a tie, stop fighting and go back to the ways of peace.

A Proposed Amendment

County officers came from sixty-five of the eighty-eight counties in Ohio Wednesday and held a meeting in Columbus.

The purpose of their journey to Columbus and their consultation with each other was to initiate a constitutional amendment fixing a four year term for all county officials.

The argument in favor of the proposal is that the adoption of such an amendment would reduce the expense of elections, relieve the people of the annoyance incident to so many elections and increase the efficiency of the public service.

The arguments advanced are all sound. The people do need to be relieved of the annoyance and the cost of so many elections and there is no doubt the public service would be benefitted by giving officials a longer term.

Officials would, unquestionably, have more time, relieved of frequent campaigns, to devote to their official duties.

The proposal would be received in much more favor if it did not include the retention of the present elected officials for a longer term than obtained when they were elected.

The endeavor of present officials to prolong their tenure of office creates the impression that selfishness is the motive behind the proposal rather than the public welfare and the existence of that impression will be the chief obstacle to be overcome.

The county officials who participated in the Columbus meeting would have been in much better position to urge the adoption of the proposed amendment by the voters if they had restrained their selfish desires.

They might have added materially to the prospects for the success of the proposal by including in the proposed amendment a clause making county officials, elected to a four year term, ineligible to succeed themselves.

With the proposed amendment freed of the objection that it would create four year terms for officers elected by the people to a two year term and strengthened by a one term provision, it is quite likely that the proposal would be endorsed by the voters.

THE HIGH ROAD.

The high road, oh, the high road—
 With all the world a-fare.
 My lady's carriage glitters
 And all the lackeys stare.
 She passes by with changeless eye,
 Why should she look or care?

The high road, oh, the high road,
 It is a sight to see.
 The lords of this brief present,
 Each in his own degree
 Proud of the din he journeys in,
 Roll on by grange and lea.

The high road, oh, the high road,
 It is your way and mine.
 I watch the hard-set faces;
 You wonder where they dine.
 The engines beat beneath their feet,
 Their eyes are warmed with wine.

The high road, oh, the high road,
 May I have strength to go
 With steps of tranquil pleasure,
 Unhurried, loitering, slow,
 Until before the last inn door
 The sunset bugles blow.

The Dog Team.

Now the modus operandi of a dog team is as follows: The leader and wheel dog are the whole works on the basis of 75 to 255. The leader starts 'em, he stops 'em, he picks the trail, he turns 'em. When he walks, the rest do; when he gallops, they gallop. All the wheel dog does is to guide the nose of the sled, materially assisted by the driver. The rest of the team merely pull and yelp.
 From which follows that a good leader is a very desirable thing to have and a poor leader is worse than useless. The driver, at the handlebars, is often thirty feet from the leader, the dogs being driven tandem and controlled by word of mouth and a whip—Outing.

Garlic and Milk.

The odor and flavor of garlic is due, like the odor of rotten eggs, to sulphur compounds. Garlic is a member of the onion family, grows in pastures, cultivated fields and even in the woods.
 Garlic is a bad pest on any farm, but is exceptionally so on a dairy farm because of the strong flavor it gives to the milk. A temporary expedient is to keep the cows off the infested pasture at least four hours before milking. This will greatly reduce the bad flavor. Then if the milk stands at least four hours the flavor may disappear altogether.—Farm and Fireside.

GERMAN NOTE WILL NOT BE SATISFACTORY

Washington, July 9.—Based on information transmitted through Ambassador Gerard and press dispatches from Berlin, the conclusion has been reached here that the note which Germany is about to send to the United States contains little or nothing that will satisfy the views of this government regarding the submarine issue.

Since the administration has decided it can not discuss informally with the German government certain proposals which seem to represent this limit of Germany's concessions, the feeling is general in Washington that the situation will not be materially improved by the German reply about to be given to Mr. Gerard. If the present indications are accurately interpreted, Germany is offering no real concession, but is, in fact, proposing that the United States be the one to yield.

The prospect, as now viewed by Washington officials, is that the United States will be compelled for the second time to inform Germany that she has not met this government on the principles involved, and demand for the third time reparation for past offenses and assurances for the future freedom of American life and property from the menace of German submarine operations.

Break Unlikely.

This far from satisfactory outlook, however, is not regarded as foreshadowing a break between the two governments. Officials see no reason why a rupture should follow merely because Germany's proposals now seem certain to be rejected. Provided there is no further wanton attack on American life or the American flag it is believed the discussion of the issue may continue indefinitely. That it will remain a disputed question until the end of the war is regarded as within the range of possibility, provided always there is no repetition of the Lusitania disaster.

Secretary of State Lansing has declined to disclose what instructions, if any, the president has ordered sent to Ambassador Gerard regarding the response the latter shall make to the German foreign office. It may be said, however, that Mr. Gerard will not be authorized to discuss at the foreign office the German propositions in advance of their being received in the form of a note from Germany.

According to forecasts from Ambassador Gerard and from unofficial sources in Berlin, Germany offers to refrain from torpedoing only such ships leaving American ports as the United States certifies to be unarmed, without any contraband aboard, and guarantees that they will stop for examination when signaled by submarines.

Though it is admitted that opinion

can not finally be passed on this proposal until it is seen exactly in the form in which Germany submits it, the general opinion here is that it essentially involves an abridgement or surrender of the American right maintained by President Wilson, that citizens of this government may travel anywhere they please on unarmed merchantmen. On this ground alone it is declared it is not likely that the government could be in any way a party to such an arrangement. Furthermore, the plan is regarded as involving unneutral action by this government.

Kindness has converted more sinners than zeal, eloquence or learning.—F. W. Faber.

Do You Want to Stay Poor

Get out of your head the idea that Poverty is something you can not help. Just so long as you stick to that theory just so long poverty is going to stick to you. People in most cases are poor because they are too indolent—too careless—too thoughtless. Sit down and figure what you are spending, and what you can do without. Not the thing that cost dollars but the articles that cost pennies. How many pennies do you waste a week? Multiply that by 52—multiply that in turn by 50. You will then get some idea of why people stay poor all their lives. Fifty years of waste will turn even a millionaire into a pauper—while 50 years of economy will make a poor man rich.

—For the pennies that are wasted are responsible for most of the misery and practically all the poverty in the world.

CLAMOR FOR WORKMEN TO REPAIR TORNADO DAMAGE

Great Demand for Carpenters, Tinnners and Other Workmen—Everyone Busy in Wake of Wednesday Night Storm—Loss Not Covered By Insurance Is Heavy—Repairing of Telephone Wires Progresses Rapidly—Injured Are Recovering

The path of the tornado of Wednesday night is a scene of remarkable activity, not only in this city where scores of workmen have been engaged in cleaning up the debris and repairing damage done, but in the rural districts, which suffered most, where every available man is being pressed into service in gathering up the scattered wheat, rebuilding fences, repairing damage to residences, barns and other buildings.

Carpenters and tinnners are at a premium throughout the stricken district, owing to the great demand for immediate repairs, re-roofing, and rebuilding work necessary.

It has been impossible to give in detail the enormous damage inflicted by the storm, owing to lack of telephone facilities, and it will be

several days before all lines are restored to their former condition.

Extra workmen have been employed by both the Bell and Ohio State phone companies in the resetting of poles and stringing wires. Mile after mile of telephone wire was rendered useless when trees or branches crashed down upon the slender strands and carried them to the earth, or poles gave way before the blast and broke the lines.

Only a portion of the lights were turned on in the city Thursday night, but every effort is being made by the company to have the city well lighted tonight.

Thousands of fruit trees in the path of the storm were destroyed, and that loss alone will exceed $10,000, it is claimed.

The dozens of farmers who lost their barns, or other buildings, or suffered serious damage, are taking steps to rebuild and make repairs just as quickly as possible, but it will be several months before all buildings are replaced, and at a cost of tens of thousands of dollars.

The storm has caused a general rush for tornado insurance, many of the persons losing heaviest not having a dollar of tornado insurance.

Mrs. Mary Barker, who suffered a sprained ankle and bruises when the house in which she lived was destroyed, is recovering.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Frederick, who was badly injured when hurled from bed in a second story room to the ground, is recovering rapidly. Other victims of the storm, who suffered cuts and bruises only, are recovering.

Considering the number of hair-breadth escapes, it is surprising that the death list in this city and county did not number a half score or more.

ECHOES OF STORM.

Two barns were destroyed, scales house torn down on the Wm. Worthington farm during the storm Wednesday night. The Worthington home stand also was damaged.

Chas. Johnson's new home, under course of construction on Gregg street, was badly damaged.

A beautiful grove of fine old trees on the Worthington estate, and a similar grove on the Calvert farm in southwestern Fayette, were almost ruined, innumerable trees being torn up by roots or broken off, and great branches twisted from the trunks of other trees.

A barn on the John Fisher farm in the above neighborhood, was blown down.

Two or three barns on the Millikan estate were destroyed. A silo and sheds met a like fate.

J. C. Greiner lost a barn, scales and shed on his farm five miles east of this city. His damage exceeds $1,000.

The number of windpumps torn down is variously estimated at 25 to 50.

JESSE DENNER MAY FACE COURT WITHIN FEW DAYS

Following the close of the trial of John Denner, convicted of murder in the first degree and who admitted upon the witness stand that he killed Hoggy Bainter, the general public is displaying a great deal of interest in what punishment may be meted out to Jesse Denner, 18-year old brother of John Denner, and an accomplice in the crime, who is still confined in the county jail awaiting action of the court.

In an "admission" made by Jesse Denner in the presence of a number of court house attaches, March 22, he told how the crime had been committed by his brother, but upon the witness stand he made radically different statements calculated to show that John Denner killed Bainter in self defense.

The chief part Jesse Denner is alleged to have played in connection with the crime was aiding in keeping the crime concealed, and the law provides punishment for such an offense.

It is not known when Jesse Denner will be called into court, but this may be done within the next few days.

MAN WHO REALLY HATES HAIGHT

Pearl Villard, Ross countian, is looking for a man who appeared and hired a horse to drive to this city, and who has not yet returned. The man gave the name of Isaac Haight.

Haight is a junk dealer, and went into partnership with Villard, stating he would drive to this city, gathering up junk on the way, dispose of the junk here and then drive back, picking up another load. That was two weeks ago and the fellow has not returned.

Haight is a man of 70 years of age, short gray beard and mustache. He is slightly crippled in the right leg. The horse is a dark bay, defective hind legs. The wagon is a covered one, originally painted black, with home made shafts. Any information should be telephoned to the police.

The body was brought here Thursday evening and taken to the home of his son, John Godfrey, on Rose avenue. The funeral will be held from the residence, Saturday at 2:00 p. m. ## In Social Circles

A nuptial event of extended interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. King, of Good Hope, Wednesday evening, when their daughter Miss Lura E. King was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest R. Thomas, a prominent young farmer of Alexandria.

It was a wedding confined to the families and close friends and marked by informality, but very lovely in all its appointments. The large room was elaborately decorated throughout in asparagus fern, smilax and wild roses, and the bridal party of asparagus and roses formed an effective background for the beautiful bridal tableau.

Leading the bridal party were two nieces of the bride, Charles Smith and Horace King. Wilson, white, strewing the pathway out for the bride and groom with flowers.

A little niece of the bridegroom wore the ring on a white satin cushion. The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Grace King, a charming maid in empire gown of white taffeta, the high waist outfitting with pink rose buds, and Mrs. John Wilson, a handsome matron in honor, in her own wedding gown of white satin. Both carried pink bouquets.

In her bridal robes the bride was pictured, enveloped in long tulle and caught to her dark braids with orange blossoms, and carrying a silver bouquet of bride's roses and tied with tulle. Her gown was white crepe de chine and lace with shored skirt, high neck and long sleeves.

Rev. Pfaltzgraf performed the ceremony. A feature of the wedding was the beautiful music. Mrs. Will King, of Annapolis, Md., sang three songs before the ceremony and Mrs. Lura York sang after the nuptial ceremony. Miss Bernice Boggs was pianist.

Mrs. King played the wedding march and soft strains during the ceremony. Thirty-five wedding guests were seated with an elaborate four-course supper, Mrs. Lora Bryant catering. The pink and white color scheme of the wedding was artistically carried out in the dining room decorations and supper courses.

The bridal table, laid with fourteen covers had for its central embellishment an exquisite mound of bride's roses, pink roses and smilax. Mrs. Will King found the dime, Mrs. Glenn Wilson the ring and Miss Mazie Kessler the thimble. Miss Ethel Wilson and Miss Kessler caught the bouquet together and presented it to the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left in all the storm for Washington, expecting to take the 10:36 B. & O. train. Their new home is in readiness for them on Mr. Thomas' farm and the best wishes of many friends follow them.

The bride is a very attractive and accomplished girl, a graduate of the O. W. U., and will be greatly missed in her home circle. Her going away gown was of dark blue, with hat en suite.

The W. F. M. Society of Grace church enjoyed a delightful porch Kensington at the home of Mrs. Scott Hopkins on Wednesday afternoon.

Assisting hostesses were Mesdames Willis, Penn, Hamilton, Ross and Taylor. A refreshing summer collation was served and all enjoyed the social afternoon.

The August meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. S. Hodson.

The Wednesday Club of Bloomingburg, was indebted to Miss Hattie Pinkerton for a delightful picnic at the Children's Home.

BURTON'S PRESIDENTIAL BOOM IS LAUNCHED

Cleveland, July 9.—As guests of the John Hay club arose to waive their napkins and cheer, the presidential boom of former Senator Theodore E. Burton became a fact in Republican politics in Ohio. Statewide significance was given its inauguration because it was sponsored by Attorney General Edward C. Turner.

ENGLISH AERIAL SQUAD IN ACTION

London, July 9.—A great aerial squadron, numbering twenty allied aeroplanes, raided Bruges and caused great destruction to the docks, according to a message from Rotterdam.

RUINS ARE SEARCHED FOR BODIES

Cincinnati, July 9.—With twenty-five identified dead, more not identified, seven missing and property damage that will exceed $1,000,000, Cincinnati is making a valiant effort to recover from probably the worst wind and rainstorm of its history. One hundred persons are injured.

Wednesday night at 9:30 the storm broke; one-half hour later the city and its suburbs lay stricken, in almost total darkness, its telephone system paralyzed, its streetcar service completely suspended and its citizens groping to ascertain the toll the storm had exacted. The wind blew seventy miles an hour.

Two steamboats had gone down in the Ohio river, one having hit a bridge pier, while the other was overturned by the terrific force of the gale; probably 100 houses were leveled to the ground, a half dozen lofty church spires were toppled, and when the full extent of the damage was ascertained it was found that few houses in the city had escaped some damage.

The streets of the downtown district were strewn with electric signs and plateglass windows, while in the residence section and in the suburbs even wagon and automobile traffic was made impossible by hundreds upon hundreds of trees uprooted and thrown across the thoroughfares. Probably fifty clubhouses along the Ohio river were swept into the stream and floated away.

Streetcar service is practically normal, and the telephone service is rapidly recovering from the blow, while the city has done miraculous work in cleaning up the debris. But the search for bodies in the collapsed houses continues, and the river is being dragged and its surface searched for the bodies of those who are believed to have gone down on the sunken steamers.

Tricks of the Storm.

The storm played many odd and peculiar tricks. Eleven persons, all related, are believed to have been killed. The family of Louis Cohen and that of Meyer Tennenbaum, closely related, but living blocks away from each other, were stricken, three of the Cohen family and four of the Tennenbaum family being among the known dead, while four other members, one Tennenbaum and three Cohens, are believed to be still buried in the ruins of their homes.

At Terrace Park, a suburb, a special train carrying race horses from Latonia to the eastern race tracks was wrecked. Nineteen thoroughbred horses were killed.

The work of searching for the dead goes on, while the captain and twelve surviving members of the crew of the towboat Convey, which hit a bridge pier and went down, have given up all hope that the remaining six members of the crew are alive.

The damage to Newport, Covington, Bellevue, Dayton, Fort Thomas, Fort Mitchell, Latonia and Ludlow, on the Kentucky side, it is believed, will almost equal the amount of damage wrought in this city.

Reports from the smaller cities of southern Ohio indicate that while the storm was severe in these localities, yet little property damage was done, although crops suffered heavily. Dayton suffered a loss of $35,000.

Among the dead in Cincinnati are James Allen, Ohio Humane society officer; Redmond Fagin and Grace and Lee Spicer. The greatest number of fatalities occurred in the vicinity of Sixth and Mound streets, where five buildings collapsed.

OHIO BRIEFS

HUGE CAKE FOR JOHN D.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 9.—John D. Rockefeller celebrated his seventy-sixth birthday quietly at his home in Pocantico Hills, the only interesting incident being a visit from Anton von Mings, who came from Chicago with a birthday cake for the oil king. Von Mings was very much disappointed after his long journey because he could not see Mr. Rockefeller and deliver the cake personally. Mr. Rockefeller has been greatly disturbed since the shooting of J. P. Morgan, and because of the attempt on the Wall street financier's life he canceled his trip to Cleveland and closed his grounds tight.

Von Mings, who is about sixty years old, carried his cake in a box about three feet high. He was much dejected and returned to the depot and later left for Chicago. Von Mings, who said he was a baker as well as a blacksmith, made the cake. He said he walked here from Chicago two years ago to see Mr. Rockefeller and had been sent to the insane asylum at Poughkeepsie, where he remained nine months.

FINED FOR SPEEDING IN BELLEFONTAINE

Bellefontaine, O., July 9.—Mayor C. F. McGilvray of Springfield was fined $10 and costs by Mayor Amos Bontrager of West Liberty for speeding. Mayor McGilvray will test the right of municipalities to pass ordinances regulating the speed of automobiles.

HUERTA PARTICULAR ABOUT HIS LIBERTY

El Paso, Tex., July 9.—"If I am to have my liberty, it must be unconditional, and I will not accept my release in any other way," said General Victoriano Huerta, when told of the report from Washington that he might be released from custody if he would agree to leave the border.

The First Principle of Good Health

One great medical authority declares that sluggish bowels are the cause of more than half the ills that afflict mankind. A constipated condition quickly affects the liver and other organs, so that indigestion and constipation are soon followed by biliousness, headaches, chronic bad breath and a generally disarranged condition of the system.

Foley Cathartic Tablets are an ideal physic, for their action is wholesome and thoroughly cleansing, without griping, nausea or inconvenience. They invigorate and strengthen the bowel action and have a good effect on the stomach and liver.

L. L. Levey, Green Bay, Wis., writes: "For a long time I suffered from constipation and liver trouble. Nothing seemed to help me. I finally secured Foley Cathartic Tablets and am pleased to state they have cured me. They are the finest cathartic to take I have ever used and their effect is quick and sure."

SAYS SUICIDE SHOT HIMSELF

New York, July 9.—Jerry Ryan, who was Frank Holt's guard in the Mineola jail last Tuesday night when Holt killed himself, refuses to subscribe to the account of the circumstances of Holt's death which is put forward by District Attorney Lewis I. Smith, Coroner Walter R. Jones and Warden William Hulst.

Ryan, who was found at his home in Valley Stream, told a new story about what happened in the jail on Tuesday night at the moment of Holt's death. Ryan says now, and says emphatically, that he believes Holt shot himself; that he will never believe Holt committed suicide by plunging head first from the roof of the cell block.

"I have never decided that Holt jumped to death and that he did not use a pistol," said the jail guard. "I shall never be convinced that the noise I heard when I was out of the corridor for a moment or two was not the sound of a pistol shot or an explosion of some kind. When I found Holt's body I was first told that the man had shot himself. Then they got together and talked the matter over and then I was told that he had jumped from the cell roof."

LAMONT RACES AGAINST TIME

New York, July 9.—Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. arrived in New York after a race against time across the continent, started as soon as he heard the news of the shooting of Mr. Morgan. Mr. Lamont was in the heart of the Cascades, in Oregon. The trip was made in eighty-four hours. Mr. Lamont talked with Mr. Morgan over the phone as soon as he arrived. He said that Mr. Morgan talked reassuringly about his condition and was most optimistic.

FIGHTING IS TERRIFIC IN ARRAS REGION

London, July 9.—The French forces which captured the railway station near Souchez pressed forward and penetrated for some distance into the German lines. The German forces delivered a counter attack of an extremely violent character and were able to recapture some of the ground they had lost, but not all of it. All along the line north of Arras there have been numerous infantry engagements during the last twenty-four hours, none of them, however, resulting in marked advantage to either side. There have also been artillery and infantry engagements in the Argonne and near St. Mihiel.

So far as land battles are concerned interest still centers in southern Poland, where the Russians, strongly reinforced with both men and guns, and with their railways and the fortresses of Lvigorod and Brest-Litovsk, to draw upon, have held up the Austro-German attempt to outflank Warsaw from the southwest. The Austrians made the admission that before superior Russian forces they have withdrawn to the hills to the north of Krassnik.

Further heavy fighting must take place in this region, but the Russian military writers express confidence that now any effort by the Germanic allies to deliver a lightning blow has been discounted and that the grand duke's army will be able to hold its positions and perhaps drive the invaders back.

The Italian navy has suffered its first serious loss. An Austrian submarine having successfully torpedoed the battle cruiser Amalfi, in the narrow waters of the Adriatic. Most of the crew were saved. This is the second allied warship to fall a victim to an Austrian under-water craft, the French cruiser Leon Gambetta having earlier in the war been caught in the Ionian sea.

As an offset, it is claimed that a French warship has sunk a German submarine in the channel, while the British admiralty announced that it was a British submarine which torpedoed a German warship in the Baltic July 2, although no details are added to the brief statement made in the Russian official communication the day after the attack took place.

THAW UNDERGOES SEVERE GRILLING

New York, July 9.—The jury which is to pass on the sanity of Harry K. Thaw had an opportunity to study him for seven hours, under the cross-examination of attorneys for the state. Every incident of his life was thrust before him in an effort to let the jury observe his mental attitude. For the greater part of the ordeal Thaw seemed self-contained, but at times he became palpably nervous and on one occasion showed signs of anger.

Java Breadfruit.

Jack trees, another name for breadfruit, grow wild in Java. The trees are very straight and have trunks rising to nearly fifty feet. The fruit is thirty inches long and twelve inches broad, the weight often reaching 120 pounds. The flesh of the fruit is delicious, and the oily seeds are eaten roasted. The wood is a beautiful yellow in color and is hard enough to be used for furniture and cabinet work. When struck it gives a very clear note; hence bells are made of it and pieces of the wood are also used by watchmen on mountains for giving signals.
